

john terpstra

Redeemer University College and the Department of English is pleased to invite you to a book launch of John Terpstra's

The House with the Parapet Wall

Thursday February 5, 2015, 7.30 to 9.00 p.m.
Executive Dining Room

John Terpstra will read from his new book and will sign books after the reading. Refreshments will be served, and a booktable will be available for purchasing Terpstra's books.

John Terpstra is the author of many books of poetry, most recently Brilliant Falls (2013). He is also the author of three prose projects: Falling Into Place (2002); The Boys, or, Waiting for the Electrician's Daughter (2005), shortlisted for the Charles Taylor Prize; and Skin Boat (2009). Terpstra lives in Hamilton, and we are grateful for his longstanding connections with Redeemer.

With thanks to Gaspereau Press and the Writers' Union of Canada for sponsorship and support.
